

Congratulations, your abstract(s) has been accepted as e-poster at the 18th Meeting of the EAU Robotic Urology Section in conjunction with the 13th meeting of the German Society of Robotic Urology from 11-13 November 2021.

Please note that you have to confirm each individual accepted abstract. You can do so by logging in to <https://abstracts.uroweb.org/abstracts>. If an abstract is accepted, please click on the button 'more information' and inform us by 31 October 2021 at the latest if you agree to present this abstract. Also make sure that you are registered via <https://registrations.uroweb.org> (early registration fee applies).

As an e-poster author, you are requested to upload a Poster PDF to mediAventures prior to arriving to Dusseldorf via THIS LINK

Your Poster PDF will be on display from Thursday 11 November until Sunday 13 November 2021 as electronic poster in the e-poster area on electronic screens, and your poster will also be available online at erus.uroweb.org.

Please note the following instructions for the Poster PDF:

- > Only PDF format will be accepted
- > No videos are accepted
- > Posters should be in portrait (vertical)
- > Posters attached to e-mails cannot be processed
- > Only 1 poster PDF file per abstract

Do's

- > Make your poster visually interesting
- > Your poster should follow an easy to understand format i.e. methods, results and conclusions
- > Keep illustrative material simple when using charts, graphs, drawings and pictures
- > e-Posters (in .PDF-format) should be self-explanatory and will be used to expose your findings to congress delegates
- > Use some colour combinations that provide better contrast such as white on black etc.

DONT'S

- > No need to bring a printed version of your poster, it will be e-posters only
- > Do not use projection equipment (projectors are not supplied)
- > Do not over-elaborate everything on your poster
- > It is not possible to bring small leaflets of your poster, there is no location where these can be placed

We look forward to seeing you in Dusseldorf!
